

BEST OF WARSAW FOOD AND DRINK AWARDS

The city's top restaurateurs and chefs converged on the Sofitel on February 15 for the latest installment of the Insider's prestigious Best of Warsaw food and drinks awards. Key winners on the night included Noluta, who, for the third year running, scooped the top prize in the fine dining category, Vietnamka (Casual Dining), and Plato (Neo Bistro). The big winner, however, were Bez Gwiazdek who came away with awards in the categories for Best Modern Polish and Best Chef (Robert Trzódpek).

Other gongs were handed out to Martin Gimenez Castro of Salto (Inspiration), Robert Sowa of N31 (Lifetime Achievement), Sebastian Wetpa (Outstanding Achievement) and Malka Kafka of Tel Aviv (Restaurateur of the Year). Of the newbies, Hala Gwardii were recognized for Best Food Concept, Winsky as the Best Drinks Concept and Arkadiusz Wilamowski as the Best Newcomer on account of his outstanding debut as head chef at Chłodna 15.
